SMDAM discloses the reasons for its objection to each resolution of both investee companies (domestic stocks) and investment corporations (J-REITs), or the main reasons in cases where there are multiple reasons for objection. SMDAM judges “approval” or “objection” based on its “Criteria for Determining the Exercise of Voting Rights”.

SMDAM formulates and discloses “Criteria for Determining the Exercise of Voting Rights” to eliminate arbitrariness as much as possible and to realize appropriate corporate governance. SMDAM will continually review these standards in response to changes in the external environment or engagements with investee companies/investment corporations, etc., and will strengthen its efforts to increase corporate value through the exercise of voting rights and active dialogue with investee companies/investment corporations.

【 Proposals requiring explanation 】

At the April to June 2023 meeting, SMDAM considers the following proposals to be particularly requiring explanation:

1801 Taisei Corporation (Criterion concerning conduct that undermines public confidence)

The Sapporo branch of Taisei Corporation caused a steel frame failure problem in a building under construction in March 2023. We voted against the election of reappointed directors and auditors because the results of the investigation and measures to prevent recurrence could not be confirmed at the time of voting. We also voted against the reappointed representative director on the criterion of cross-shareholdings.

1802 OBAYASHI CORPORATION (Shareholder Proposal)

OBAYASHI received a shareholder proposal for an additional dividend of 12 yen per share. We voted for the proposal because the level of shareholder return required was not excessive compared to its sufficient dividend capacity on the balance sheet. The company objected the proposal, saying it would interfere with the business plan, but we thought the claim was inappropriate.

1860 TODA CORPORATION (Shareholder Proposal)

TODA CORPORATION received a shareholder proposal calling for the acquisition of 30.82 million shares. We voted for the proposal because there was a certain rationale for improving capital efficiency and shareholder returns, given its excessive cross-shareholdings and the PBR of less than 1.

1890 TOYO CONSTRUCTION (Shareholder Proposal)

There were governance concerns regarding TOYO CONSTRUCTION's handling of the takeover bid (TOB). However, we voted for the management proposal and against the shareholder proposal because the company has set KPIs that emphasize capital efficiency in the new medium-term business plan and has shown a commitment to meeting the needs of investors.

3382 Seven & i Holdings (Shareholder Proposal)

Seven & i received shareholder proposals to nominate directors to improve governance. The proposal called for changes to the business portfolio, including the spin-off of 7-Eleven, but did not provide a specific strategy. We voted for the management proposals and against the shareholder proposals because the company's CVS concentration strategy with focus on food was partially consistent with the shareholder proposal.

4676 Fuji Media Holdings (Criteria concerning the qualifications of directors)

We voted against the proposals for the appointment of directors for the following reasons:

- Involvement in bid-rigging at the Tokyo Olympics (Criterion concerning conduct that undermines public confidence)
- ROE has not exceeded the market average in the past three years (ROE criterion)

- The total number of directors of 16 is too large (Criterion concerning the composition of the board of directors)
- Excessive level of cross-shareholdings relative to net assets (cross-shareholdings criterion)

We voted against reappointing directors who have served for at least three years based on the ROE criterion, and voted against reappointing representative directors based on other reasons listed above.

5021 Cosmo Energy Holdings (Introduction of takeover defense measures and shareholder proposal)

Cosmo Energy received a shareholder proposal for the appointment of a director to review the capital policy and business portfolio. We voted against the shareholder proposal, believing that the company's strategy was reasonable for improving corporate value in the medium to long term. However, we voted against the management proposal for the introduction of takeover defense measures because the need for such measures was not urgent. Rather than introducing takeover defense measures, we believed the company should carry out the current medium-term management plan and improve corporate value through dialogue with investors.

6236 NC Holdings (Shareholder Proposal)

We voted for the following three of the eight shareholder proposals from Proposals 2 to 9..

- Proposal No. 7: Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation granting shareholders the right to propose appropriation of retained earnings will contribute to shareholder value.
- Proposal No. 8: A proposal to pay a dividend of 65 yen per share was deemed appropriate because the company had sufficient liquidity on hand.
- Proposal No. 9: Executive Compensation Proposal is expected to encourage management to be aware of performance and stock price compared to the company's current stock compensation system.

8306 Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group (Shareholder Proposal)

8316 Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group (Shareholder Proposal)

8411 Mizuho Financial Group (Shareholder Proposal)

MUFG, SMFG and Mizuho received shareholder proposals to develop and disclose transition plans to align their lending and investment portfolios with the 1.5 degree Celsius target, the goal of the Paris Agreement, to achieve carbon neutrality by 2050. As each company participates in the Net Zero Banking Alliance (NZBA), of which purpose is consistent with what the proposal required, we voted for the shareholder proposals. While the amendments to the Articles of Incorporation would have a minimal impact on each company's business, we believed that they would contribute to the shareholder value by enhancing the progress and acceleration of efforts toward the goal of net zero by 2050.
